TRUTHFUL TURKISH SOLDIERS

Capture Gang of In- surgents and Kill Two Hundred

Save a Hundred Wounded Away From Town After Inflicting Inhuman Tortures

Sofia, Sept. 8.—Details of a fight between the Turkish and Bulgarian bands, headed by the Macedonian leader, Popoffo, surrendered to the Turkish battalions, after severe fighting. The troops then fell on the helpless insurgents, killed 200, and 100, who were severely wounded, were taken away from the town, after inflicting inhuman tortures on them. The Turkish add that at Nikola's strong was cut up by the Turks, and 300

Bulgaria Has no Friends.

Sofia, Sept. 8.—A dispatch to Times from Varna, Bulgaria, dated September 7th, says: "The Bulgarian ministers are returning to Sofia. No aggressive action will be taken on this side. It is perfectly understood that Bulgaria has not a single friend in Europe and a policy of neutrality would only result in ruining the country. Prince Ferdinand's death can hardly provoke adverse action, even in Germany, where there is an obvious eagerness to participate in a Turkish-Bulgarian war. The fact that some benefit might accrue to Bulgaria by the Balkan question leading to a conflict between the powers has not entered into the calculations of the Bulgarian government. No vain hopes of territorial aggrandizement are entertained; it is asked that the powers insure a stable government for Macedonia."

Down is Wiped out

Chicago, Sept. 8.—A special from Orleans to the Record-Herald, describing the destruction of the town of San Miguel, a town on the east coast of Yucatan, were received here today. Not a building was standing. The steamer Breaker, which passed San Miguel, on way from New Orleans to Belize, found the place in ruins, not a living being in sight. San Miguel was the oldest town in the state. It was the place where Cortez was discovered Mexico. There he established his headquarters. The hurricane caused immense damage along the Mexican coast, and many lives are reported lost.

Are You Sure You Owe it?

Haven't you had bills presented that you thought you had paid, or for goods you know you had never bought? Nobody but a bill collector realizes the number of disputed bills there are the first of the month. Of course it's somebody's mistake. Goods are often charged to the wrong customer. The merchant failed to credit your account when you paid him. No matter what the reason, you don't like to have these things occur. Just try the cash plan in the future and avoid all the objectionable features of the credit business. You pay a big interest for all the "accommodations" you get at the credit store. Even when you pay cash at a store doing a credit business you have to pay credit prices. The merchant charges his losses from "bad accounts" to his cash customers by doubling the profits. That's the only way he can keep even.

Inspection at Roseburg Camp.

Roseburg, Sept. 8.—Colonel James Jackson, U. S. A., Monday morning inspected the four companies of the First Separate Battalion, O. N. G., now in camp here. Captain Johnson, of the Nineteenth United States Infantry, stationed at Vancouver, Wash., and Adjutant-General W. E. Finzer, of Woodburn, Or., were also in attendance. There are about 150 men in the camp. Much interest is being manifested in the daily target practice with the new regular army rifles. The grounds are proving much better suited for encampment purposes than those occupied at Albany last year.

Circus Tent Blows Down.

Anthony, Kan., Sept. 8.—During a severe wind storm today, the tent in which John Robinson's circus was exhibiting was blown down. An immense crowd of people was in the menagerie, and when the poles and canvas came down a hundred or more were hurt, of whom 50 required medical attention.

Pre-Joyner, a farmer, was probably fatally hurt. Cages containing the wild animals were overturned, some of the cages falling on people. None of the animals escaped.

WAR IS SURE TO FOLLOW

Turkey and Bulgaria Certain to Get at it

Just now They are Butcher- ing One Another When- ever the Occasion Permits

London, Sept. 8.—Special dispatches from the near East, published here this morning, add little fresh news regarding the situation in the Balkans. All the correspondents at Constantinople emphasize the apparent danger of war with Bulgaria, while the Sofia correspondents are equally insistent as to the prudent and correct attitude of Prince Ferdinand and his government.

Accounts from both Turkish and insurgent sources of the operations in Macedonia show that the work of extermination is proceeding unchecked, and although apparently emphasizing the danger of a conflagration, the powers are making little effort to interfere. It is believed that nothing of a serious nature will be done until after the meeting of the Czar and Emperor Francis Joseph, at Vienna, when it may be too late.

The insurgents are now said to number 2500 well-armed and efficiently commanded men. Their leaders will stop at nothing to secure resources for their equipment.

The Sofia correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says:

Insurgents Are Losing Reason.

"I am in close touch with the insurgents, and am able to affirm emphatically that unless acceptable proposals shall be made within two or three weeks, Europe will be startled by a record of deeds unequalled in the blood-stained history of the East."

The Morning Leader's correspondent at Sofia says the Turkish policy is to draw the insurgents into action at all points. The bands, however, are avoiding conflicts until preparations shall be completed. They are gathering in masses at various strategic points, with a view to comprehensive movements inside of 10 days.

An unconfirmed report from Vienna states that the Bulgarian Exarch has been shut up in his palace because of his refusal to issue a further pastoral letter asking the Bulgarians to lay down their arms.

War the Only Solution.

A dispatch to the Times from Monastir, dated September 6th, says:

"In Turkish circles war with Bulgaria is considered to be imminent. Hilmi Pasha, inspector-general of Macedonia, says he sees no other solution. The final reserves are being warned to hold themselves in readiness, and orders have been issued to the principal towns to supply horses and money, and otherwise to aid the military preparations."

"In the feverish attempt to stamp out the insurrection in this quarter, so as to release the troops for operations elsewhere, there is, unfortunately, every reason to suspect that an attempt is being made to produce the indiscriminate slaughter of the Bulgarian element in which Christians of all denominations are in danger of being treated alike. Should this prove true, there can be no hope of saving the greater part of the Christian population in the remote districts of Western Macedonia."

Constantinople, Sept. 8.—Reports today say the Turks killed 35 Bulgarians, and drove others into the lake in an engagement near Lake Rodenik. There is also a report of victories at Natrolch, where the insurgents' casualties were 13; at Resua with a loss of 32; at Florina with a loss of 40; Bosouvi with a loss of five, and Vishani, where two whole bands were annihilated. The Turkish commander reports that he found women and children in the woods at various places, and sent them back to their villages after caring for them.

The President Again Home

Oyster Bay, Sept. 8.—President Roosevelt's train arrived at Hoboken at 7 o'clock this morning where he took breakfast. He reached here at 10 o'clock.

The President's train stopped at Richmond Hill, where he made a speech on good citizenship. One of the features was his reception by the school children waving flags. Roosevelt leaves home again on the 16th to visit the Ellis Island immigrant station, and thence to the Antietam battlefield, where he will witness the unveiling of the monument to the memory of the New Jersey soldiers.

This is exciting.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 8.—Archbishop Hartley of Manila, is visiting President Roosevelt today.

FIERCE RIOT IN BEIRUT

Christian and Mus- sulman Murder Each Other

Each Claims the Other Start- ed the Trouble, Admirall Cotton may Land Marines

Constantinople, Sept. 8.—A consular dispatch received here from Beirut says a fierce brawl occurred there yesterday between Mussulmans and Christians, due to a shot fired by a Mussulman at a Christian employed at the American College; the Christian was wounded. The fight occurred while the Vail was aboard the cruiser Brooklyn. Diplomatic circles here regard the affair as serious. A later official version received says the Christians were the assailants, they having fired on four Mussulmans. The crowd increased until the troops were called out to compel order. Three soldiers were wounded, one killed, and one Christian was killed and one wounded. These figures are believed to be incorrect, as the rioters must have lost more heavily than the military. The British consul at Beirut immediately after the riot called upon the Vail, and threatened to ask Admiral Cotton to land the marines. The officials attribute the disturbances to the arrival of the American squadron.

Paris, Sept. 8.—Official advices to the foreign office from Beirut say six were killed and many wounded. The city is intensely agitated. The outbreak occurred the night of the 6th, and the fighting was furious, with knives and pistols. The Italian consul rescued one Christian. The news is causing much apprehension in official quarters, as it indicates a spread of disorder. The presence of the American warships is regarded as a very fortunate circumstance. The official report also shows great activity in Smyrna, which heretofore has been quiet.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The following cablegram was received at the state department, from Leishman, under today's date: "In a riot at Beirut yesterday seven Christians were killed and several wounded. Two houses of Christians were pillaged by the soldiery. An officer and man from Cotton's ship are now in the consulate. An investigation of the condition in Beirut is being conducted by a flag lieutenant and other officers, but the origin of the disturbance is unknown. The Sublime Porte claims Beirut is now quiet, and that the government force there is sufficient to insure order." The state department immediately instructed Leishman to keep the
